Featured Conference Speakers

James T. Reese, Ph.D. – Award winning Author and Lecturer: Meet the FBI's real "Mind Hunter", who inspired the hit movie "Mindhunters." He is one of the founders of the National Center for the Analysis of Violent Crime and one of the original FBI criminal personality profilers. Dr. Reese addresses thousands of people each year throughout the United States, Canada, Europe, Australia and Asia. He has been described as "entertaining", "informative", "witty", "motivational", and "passionate

Dr. Scott Poland, Professor Nova Southeastern University
Scott Poland is the former president of the National Association of School Psychologists and current member of the (NASP) Emergency Response team. He led the National Organization for Victim Assistance team that responded to the school shootings in West Paducah, Ken., Jonesboro, Ark. and provided onsite assistance to schools in Littleton, Co. after the shooting at Columbine High School.

Don Alwes, is a trainer and consultant with 24 years of law enforcement experience. He is a lead instructor for the National Tactical Officers Association in the areas of school and workplace violence and active shooter response. For 15 years, Don has served as an adjunct instructor for Kentucky's Department of Criminal Justice Training. He has instructed law enforcement personnel in active shooter response/rapid deployment, terrorism, homeland security, school and workplace violence, firearms, tactics, vulnerability assessment, and executive development.

Pennsylvania State Police - Lieutenant Allen Krawczel and Corporal Mark Magyar of the Pennsylvania State Police will provide a detailed look into the October 6, 2006, tragic shooting at a one room Amish Schoolhouse in South Central Pennsylvania. Major points will be made utilizing actual audio and video from the police response as well as crime scene photos. Lessons learned from this tragedy will be able to be applied to any police or school response to a critical incident.

Advanced School Resource Officer Certification

New at this year's conference is the ability of School Resource Officers to obtain their Advanced School Resource Officers Certification by attending pre determined courses that will be offered at the 2009 School Safety Conference. Attendees completing both the selected workshops and the application process will be awarded a SSAC Certificate of Completion for the Advanced School Resource Officer Course.
